A Long Overdue Conversation

The Revd Dr Calvin Samuel, Methodist Minister in Rochford and Rayleigh, Essex, encourages people to have open and honest conversations about racism and provides in this video a faith-filled starting point for having those conversations.

Moving stories: the Bible and migration

At this time when we are especially conscious of migration, these nine studies bring a blend of biblical, historical and contemporary material from people whose own stories have been shaped or impacted by a significant people movement.

A conversation about race

A video from St Thomas' Church, Norwich in which Andy catches up with Tatenda, Elute & Louis to talk about race, racism and their experiences.
